SUMMARY STATEMENT

ITEM NO.    SUBJECT:    Election of Reimbursement Status for Pennsylvania Unemployment Compensation

COMMITTEE:    Executive Committee

COMMITTEE MEETING DATE:    March 19, 2008

BOARD ACTION DATE:    April 16, 2008

PROPOSAL:    That the DRPA Commission authorize the CEO to execute form UC - 1692A (attached) in order to elect to be a reimbursing employer under the Pennsylvania Unemployment Compensation Law, and to include PATCO within a Group Account under the said Law.

PURPOSE:    To authorize DRPA and PATCO to regularize their status under the Pennsylvania Unemployment Compensation Law.

BACKGROUND:    The DRPA and PATCO have historically experienced few unemployment compensation claims, and of the claims that are filed, the large majority are filed in New Jersey. However, from time to time Pennsylvania Unemployment Compensation claims do arise and they have resulted in confusion and delay in handling the claims due to the fact that DRPA and PATCO have not made an election under the Pennsylvania Unemployment Compensation Law and the Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry does not have the proper records. By making this election the DRPA and PATCO would not be exposed to any additional costs, but would continue to reimburse the Pennsylvania Unemployment Compensation Fund for benefits paid to claimants and charged to the DRPA and PATCO account.
